

AFF Regional Manager Cyprus, Sarah Cooper

Sarah joined AFF in May 2014 as the first Kenya Coordinator before taking on her current role, Regional Manager Cyprus, in July 2016.

Prior to AFF, Sarah was Head of Sales and Operations for an automation design and manufacturing company. As well as management roles, Sarah worked in detailed supply chain, strategic planning and policy development roles within international business operations for a high-tech industry, for over 16 years.

Sarah holds a BA Hons in Public Policy and a Post Graduate Diploma in Business Administration.

Sarah's husband Paul is currently serving and although they live happily in SFA, they have their own house in South Wales near friends and family.
