

Name Lynne Everett

Post Youth and Community Officer, BFC, Member of School Governance Committee, SJS Episkopi

Professional background

Qualified through Liverpool University as a secondary school teacher (B.Ed.) in 1985, and then taught at an estate based school in Hull for two years.

In 1987, moved across to the Youth Service where between 1987 and 1996 various positions were held in the Humberside / Hull Youth Services. These included Deputy Youth Worker, Youth and Community Worker, Area Youth Worker and Youth Officer.

In 1996, became a Civil Servant and took up an MOD position as a Community Youth Worker for Hohne Garrison, then from 2000 to 2009, held the post of Area Youth and Community worker for the ESBA, based in Dhekelia, Cyprus.

Following a promotion to the post of Garrison Community Development Officer in BFG in June 2009, was responsible for managing a team of workers, delivering youth and community work in Hohne, Fallingbostel and Celle.

In 2013 took up the post of Youth Service Training Officer, travelling across BFG and EJSU to deliver courses to Youth and Community work staff.

Posted in July 2014 to Aldershot, as the Training Officer for AWS CS. This post involved writing, updating and delivering training, plus organising training events for staff in the UK, NI and BFG.

In February 2016, moved back to BFC, this time based in Episkopi, at HQ JETS. Currently in the role of Youth and Community Officer, as manager of the BFC Youth and Community Service.

Personal background.

Married to Dave, with five children and two grandchildren - Sam and Jack, both engineers (UK / Offshore), Cal works in Early Years education, Tess has just graduated from John Moores University and Ryan is in full time education. Four children attended KRS. Freddie and Mia are pampered babies! Pastimes include walking / hiking, tennis, squash, swimming and crafts.